Cross-border dispute resolution and mediation are gaining importance in Europe due to the growing mobility of EU citizens, the intensification of trade and the expansion of e-commerce.

The project aims to tackle the lack of uniformity in mediation training standards among EU countries and to ensure reliability and quality of performance in the cross-border civil mediation practice.

Through a tailored training curriculum for international mediators, providing a comprehensive set of specialized knowledge, technical competences and intercultural skills, InMEDIATE enables trainees to operate successfully in cross-border civil disputes.

OBJECTIVES

- ✓ Map national training programs for mediators and best practices across the EU, providing an assessment of training gaps and needs.
- ✓ Equip mediation practitioners with specialized competencies and skills enabling them to properly deal with international mediation procedures, including digital technologies for Online Dispute Resolution
- ✓ Develop a set of uniform quality standards to align the learning outcomes of InMEDIATE training curriculum with ECVET system of qualifications, fostering the mutual recognition of competencies and contributing to increased professional mobility in this sector
- ✓ Foster the professional development of mediation trainers through best practices sharing and delivery of specific methodological guidelines
- ✓ Implement a transnational e-learning platform for the exchange of knowledge & good practices in the field of cross-border civil mediation
- ✓ Build a qualified EU network of professional mediators specialized in the field of cross-border civil mediation, for a better employability and career enhancement in the international labor market

RESULTS

- Training Curriculum for International Civil Mediators
- E-learning platform for International Civil Mediators
- Methodological guidelines for the replication of the training model and certification system
